NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

A dispatch from Aspy Bay, dated 3d inst., in relation to the Atlantic Telegraph cable, says: "The workmen commenced under-running the cable this morning, at about three miles from shore. The armor is entirely rusted off. The trouble as yet is beyond us, and dragging had commenced at the other end.— The machinery works admirably, and there is great hope of the cable being successfully repaired."

The account from the Tennessee election is that Campbell (opp.) will carry the Nashville district by 2,000 majority, and that Maynard and Stokes (Union) are elected from other districts. Election quiet and vote light.

The steamer Lillie, with several hundred bales of cotton on board, took fire on the Mississippi river, on Tuesday last, and was burned to the water's edge. No lives were lost. About the same time, the steamer Pierce exploded her boiler, and subsequently caught fire and was also destroyed, at a point some twenty miles below Vicksburg. Six soldiers were killed and twenty-eight wounded. The steamer Dove was boarded on the Yazoo river by robbers on Sunday last. They took from her twenty thousand dollars in specie and wounded several of her passengers.

The Episcopal Bishop of Mississippi, Bishop Green, expresses the opinion that it would be better to have two separate organizations of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States. He directs the clergy under his charge to resume the prayer for the President of the U. S., "as soon as military rule is withdrawn from the State."

The Church Journal says it speaks by authority in announcing that the course to be pursued in the approaching General Convention of the Episcopal Church, will be to call the full roll of the dioceses, and "if any or all of the Southern Bishops or Dioceses choose to be present, they will only need to hand in their names and their credentials, answer to their names, and take their seats as of old time, without doubt, question or condition of any sort whatsoever."

The Democratic State Committee of Kentucky has issued "an address to the friends of the Constitution and Union, as originally framed, urging them to vote for the candidates who are opposed to the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery."

According to the Shreveport papers, cotton stealing in that region has become a regular business, and is pursued quite systematically.

The Circassian, the first steamer bearing the U. S. flag to Europe, since the war, is to sail from New York for Southampton to morrow week.

Gov. Sharkey, of Miss., has ordered the seizure of the cotton of those who refuse to pay the tax of one dollar on each bale sent to market.

We have various reports of financial schemes previous to the meeting of Congress. One is a large increase of the temporary loan; another is a large increase in the amount of currency to be issued by the National Banks; another is for making all the National Bank issues a legal tender—to the same extent as the greenbacks, save in the matter of their own redemption.

The ravages of the cholera, in Egypt, have somewhat subsided. The wife of the Rev.
Gulian Lansing died in Alexandria, and the English missionary, Mr. Leiber, died in Cairo.
More than 30,000 people have left Alexandria, from fear of the disease.

Hopes and doubts are expressed about the Atlantic Telegraph. We are in favor of the hopes. A few days will determine.
